COLD WAR BABY BACK IN U. S. — Mrs. Helen Dieczok and her daughter, Tanya Chwastov, 2, relax at the piano in the New York home where they rested before continuing on to their Detroit home. Tanya, the "cold war baby," was spirited away to England by her Russian father. British police removed the young girl from a Russian-bound ship minutes before the ship was due to sail. Later a British court awarded custody of the child to Mrs. Dieczok.

Hedge To End 33 Years As Mahoning Agricultural Agent

J. C. Hedge has resigned as Mahoning County Agricultural agent, as post he has held for over 33 years.

Hedge has informed the County Extension Advisory Committee of his resignation, effective Jan. 31. Wade N. Wehr, chairman of the advisory committee, revealed today the committee has recommended William B. Phillips, associate agent in Mahoning County, to fill Hedge's position, subject to the approval of the board of trustees of Ohio State University.

Phillips is a native of Wayne County and was associate extension agent in Portage County for seven years.

Hedge, who became Mahoning County agent July 1, 1923, came from Akron on Summit County where he had been farm agent since 1916.

Dean of the Ohio County Extension Agents, Hedge is a past president of the Ohio County Extension Agents Association and of the National Association of County Agricultural Agents.

Many changes in the variety of crops grown, fertilizers used and in general farm practices have been noted by Hedge since he began his work as a county agent. He has had an active part in carrying on 4-H club work throughout his years of extension duties.

Hedge aided in the establishment of the first 4-H club camp in Ohio and for the past ten years has been an officer of the 8 County Northeast Ohio 4-H camp. He has also worked with the Junior Fair Board of Canfield Fair.

Pravda Again Blasts At Yugoslavia

MOSCOW (U.P.)—Pravda fired another salvo today in the word war between the Soviet Union and Yugoslavia. This time the Soviet Communist party organ attacked Yugoslav Vice President Edvard Kardelj's criticism of Russian military action in Hungary.

Pravda called Kardelj a "revisionist," one who interprets basic Marxist-Leninist theory in his own way rather than according to the official Kremlin interpretation. It is one of the graver sins in Moscow's catalogue.

The two-page article in the Soviet Communist party's chief newspaper followed up a blast against President Tito for his criticism of Soviet policy in Hungary.

Pravda accused Kardelj of interfering in the internal affairs of Hungary.

Vandals Lack Holiday Spirit, Steal Lights

Vandals, showing a lack of Christmas spirit, stole Christmas lights from a pine tree in the yard of the Howard Firestone residence on the Albany Road some time early yesterday morning or Sunday night.

The tree also was damaged and Perry Township Constable John Herman, Jr., warned that further acts of vandalism would result in prosecution of the offenders.

Soviet Union, Poland Sign Formal Pact

Agreement Covers Future Operations Of Russian Troops

WARSAW (U.P.)—Poland and the Soviet Union have signed a formal agreement spelling out many of the technicalities to govern future operations of Russian troops in Poland.

The accord concluded Monday night followed up the broad agreement reached last month in Moscow during the visit of Wladyslaw Gomulka, Poland's "nationalist" Communist party chief.

Stipulating that Soviet troops are in Poland "temporarily," the agreement declares again that Polish sovereignty will be respected and that Soviet forces will not interfere in Poland's domestic affairs. Many other parts of the agreement read like a pact between the United States and an NATO ally where American troops are stationed.

The agreement elaborates on previous concession to Poland of veto powers over the size and movement of Russian troops in this country, even on training maneuvers. But key items left subject to later "special agreements" included the size and deployment of the Russian detachments, regulations governing the movement of Soviet troops in and out of Poland and the use of Polish military installations or public utilities by the Soviets. Agreements on these items are scheduled to be worked out within three months.

The earlier Moscow declaration said both countries agreed that Russian troops must remain in Poland because of (1) German refusal to accept Poland's annexation of East Germany territory at the end of World War II, (2) a lack of "sufficient guarantees against the rebirth of German militarism," (3) the presence of Soviet troops in East Germany, and (4) "the existing international situation."

Phone Talks Resume Today

Portsmouth Strike May Come To End

COLUMBUS, Ohio (U.P.)—Negotiations resume here today between the Ohio Consolidated Telephone Co. and the Communication Workers of America amid rising hopes that the five-month strike in southeastern Ohio may be reaching a settlement.

CWA representatives said they will submit a counter-proposal to the "final offer" made by Ohio Consolidated two weeks ago. Both the union and the company claim their contract offers contain major concessions.

Negotiations in the past failed to produce any settlement, but Ohio Consolidated's action in restoring emergency phone service in the Portsmouth area Sunday is regarded as an indication today's session may bring results.

Until Sunday, telephone service in Portsmouth had been blacked out since Oct. 15, when the company closed its exchange after a number of rock-throwing and cable-cutting incidents. Exchanges in suburban New Boston and Sciotoville are still closed.

The union, on strike since July 15, has said it was not responsible for the violence.

Chief among the issues blocking settlement is the union's demand for a renewal of its union shop clause. Ohio Consolidated has countered this with a maintenance of membership offer. Under the union shop union membership is mandatory. Under maintenance of membership it is optional but must be maintained once assumed.

Blaze Trail On Unexplored Antarctic Area

U.S. Army, Navy Men Make 632-Mile Trek In 6 Weeks

MCMURDO SOUND, Antarctica (U.P.)—Eleven U. S. Army and Navy men, aided by an electronic crevasse finder, have blazed a trail 632 miles across a previously unexplored reach of the antarctic.

Traveling by tractor and weasel, they made the trip from Little America V east to Marie Byrd Land in six weeks. Seabee members of Operation Deep Freeze will build an American station at the end of the trail to be used in the International Geophysical Year program.

The advance party was led by Maj. Merle (Skip) Dawson of Williamsburg, Va. In over all charge of the push into Marie Byrd Land is Navy Cmdr. Paul Frazier of Higginsville, Mo., former skipper of a destroyer.

The crevasse detector, pioneered on the Greenland ice cap, was mounted on the lead weasel in the advance group. Long arms at the front of the contraption emit a high-voltage beam. When it fails to bounce back its impulse to the control panel in a steady signal, it means crevasse trouble ahead.

One tractor driver was killed during a preliminary exploration last season when his vehicle plunged into a hidden cavity.

More than two tons of explosives were used on the trek to Marie Byrd Land to blast away false bridges concealing crevasses. One typical pit 20 feet wide and 100 feet deep had to be filled with a million cubic yards of snow bulldozed in to make a bridge.

The toughest going for the advance party was a seven-mile area 180 miles from Little America V where the vast continental ice sheet moves slowly down from mile-high Rockefeller Plateau to the sea-level Ross Ice Shelf.

A second party of 19 men in six 30-ton tractors left Little America V Dec. 5, following the long path marked by trail flags planted by the advance group. The second expedition is hauling six sleds carrying 200 tons of building material, sleeping and food supply equipment.

County Medical Society Opposes Free Inoculations

LISBON — Dr. J. Keith Rugh of East Liverpool said at a meeting of the Columbiana County Board of Health Monday night, that the society disapproves of free immunizations except for indigent people because the free inoculations are a "trend toward socialized medicine."

The health department previously had announced that free polio clinics would be discontinued because of "reasons beyond our control." Dr. Rugh made his statement in answer to a request by County School Supt. James L. McBride that the health department cite reasons for discontinuing the polio clinic.

The merits of the free clinics were discussed, and it was decided that a committee should be formed by members of the executive committee of the medical society, County School Board and the health department board, to try to reach an agreement on the issue.

The next regular board meeting will be held Jan. 21 at the courthouse.

Escapee Will Be Returned To Jail

LISBON — Roy E. Moore, 33, of Wellsville, the last of six escaped prisoners to be caught following a jail break at Mahoning County jail Oct. 26, 1954, was to be returned to Columbiana County jail today.

Deputies Russell VanFossan and Robert Beresford left for Monroe, Mich., Tuesday to return prisoner who was caught by Federal Bureau of Investigation officials who charged him with unlawful flight. Moore was found guilty of the breaking and entering of the home of Ann Rivelle in Wellsville. He pleaded not guilty because of insanity and underwent observation at Lima State Hospital.

He was found guilty by Judge Joel H. Sharp after waiving a jury trial and was being held at Youngstown awaiting sentence when he escaped.

Subjects Of Discussion Not Revealed

Leaders' Informal Talks Last More Than Twelve Hours

WASHINGTON (U.P.) — President Eisenhower and India's Prime Minister Nehru returned to Washington today after an overnight stay at Gettysburg, Pa., and more than 12 hours of informal conversation on world problems.

No announcement was made as to the subjects taken up by the two leaders during the Gettysburg stay. It was taken for granted, however, that their discussions concerned domestic policies that many countries are following and also international political and military affairs such as those current in Eastern Europe and the Middle East.

As the black limousine in which they returned here stopped in front of Blair House, Eisenhower gave the visiting Prime Minister a warm handshake and said something only half audible to newsmen, to the effect that he'd be seeing Nehru again soon.

Eisenhower and Nehru rode together in the car from Gettysburg as they had on the trip there Monday.

Monday's Eisenhower-Nehru talks wound up about 10:30 p.m. James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary, clocked their talks Monday at something over 12 hours. He said no such conference had been set up in Washington, but that they would be arranged if either man desired it.

He quoted Eisenhower as saying he and Nehru discussed "many things in the international field." Asked what kind of things, Hagerty replied that "they did not describe those 'many things.' Neither did they describe or break them down into topics."

Some of them seemed obvious: Americans jailed by the Reds in China, possible U. S. recognition of Communist China, the Suez crisis, economic aid, the Soviet satellites, disarmament.

Some word on the course of the conferences may come from Nehru tonight. He will make a 15-minute nationwide broadcast over CBS and NBC radio and television networks and the MBS radio network.

Time 10:15 p.m. CST.

Eisenhower conducted Nehru on a tour around the farm Monday. He gave his visitor a look at a prize bull and a couple of quarter horses, and he delivered a 10-minute account of the Battle of Gettysburg as they stood near Robert E. Lee's statue near the site of Pickett's charge.

King Herod---Death in Fear of Baby

EDITOR'S NOTE—This is the third in a series of eight studies of the birth and times of Christ. It deals with Herod, who ordered slain the innocent infants of Bethlehem in crowning climax to a life of jealousy and hate.

By GEORGE CORNELL
(AP Newsfeatures)

The black pain struck in his stomach and spread aching through his limbs. Herod moaned. He clawed at the girdle around his waist to loosen it. His face ashen, he bawled at the waiting tribune:

"Destroy them, I say — all of them! Assemble your men — take a whole cohort if it needs that! Put the blade to every one of them in that wormy city and 10 furlongs around! Don't stand there like an ox! Begone!"

The officer withdrew three paces, pivoted and went out through the brocade curtains, boots clicking on the marble floor. Herod, the ulcers cramping his belly, threw himself on a couch.

"Marianne, oh Marianne. . . His lips moved, whimpering. Faces, phantom faces — hers and many others — swam in his mind, the loved, the hated and feared whom he had slain.

HE BURIED HIS FACE in the cushions, his fingers clenched and bloodless. It had to be done! But there seemed no end to the plottings and treachery. The very fiends of Hades conspired to ruin him.

Now this new defiance, this hushed — up intrigue about a "Child-King" in Bethlehem. Why? Why? Herod rolled over and stared blankly at the gold inlaid ceiling, his body shaking with misery and fever.

"Oh Marianne. . . In the early years, he had tried to provide beneficent rule, lavish even, at least after having that fanatic Jewish patriot, Malchus, assassinated and executing 45 sympathizers in the Sanhedrin.

But always, he sensed lurking treason. He had sought to beautify and fashion this land of Judea with games, gymnasia, theaters and the gaiety of Greece and his Roman liege. But death stalked his chambers.

Abruptly, Herod raised his head. Voices, women's muffled voices, came from the outer corridor. Women. Never trust them.

Not even Marianne? A sob clutched his throat, remembering. But it was true. They all preyed on him. Ten wives! He had had. All leeches. All but her!

EVEN AT THE START, after Pompey seized Jerusalem, slaughtering 12,000 Jews, and the assassination of Julius Caesar made Mark Antony ruler of the East, a woman tried to wreck Herod's newly-bestowed kingdom.

But he had outwitted her. Herod — Herod the Great — had been too shrewd for the wiles of greedy, voluptuous Cleopatra. Lying there, he grinned through tight, blue lips. She had tried to lure him to her bed to arouse Antony's vengeance.

But not Herod! He had kept his wits, kept Antony's favor, and even got his domain enlarged, and his crown sanctioned by the Roman senate, despite Cleopatra's designs to steal land for her adjacent Egyptian realm.

It didn't stop there, though. Not at all. He had had no qualms about beheading Antigonus, Rome's foe and local claimant to the throne, and as a politic gesture, married Marianne, a princess of the Jew's royal Hasmonean line.

The memory singed like fire. "Oh, Marianne, my beloved. . . Her mother, Alexandra, and Cleopatra had poisoned the air against him and drenched his house with blood. He had to execute all Marianne's traitorous relatives, and finally, when her love turned to hate, he killed Marianne herself.

He had gone on stubbornly, trying to buttress his kingdom. But nothing ever seemed the same.

Outside forces threatened, too, when war broke out in Rome. Octavian smashed Antony at Actium, and drove him and Cleopatra to suicide.

DESPERATELY, Herod switched allegiance to Octavian, who as Augustus became emperor of the whole empire. It worked. Augustus even returned to Herod rich lands of palms and balsam Antony had given to Cleopatra.

But violence, like a deep-rooted vine, grew through Herod's castle of Antonia.

Evidence of a conspiracy by Alexander and Aristobulus, his two sons by Marianne, was brought to him by his sister the cunning Salome, and Antipater, his son by another wife. Stealing himself again, Herod had his son strangled.

"Oh Marianne, my only love. . . Herod turned on his side, his features taut with sickness, and the anxiety and erosion of 69 years. He belatedly to a porter for ewe's milk and gulped it down, gasping.

ONCE, HE HAD BEEN a man of strength and intellect, sturdy general, a flawless marksman a hunter, who caught 40 beasts in one day, but now droopy, ulcers, fever, convulsions — and grief — wasted him.

Even after killing his and Marianne's sons, he had fought to secure his power, courting public favor by starting a new Jewish temple, the most imposing ever, its white marble gleaming with precious stones on Mount Zion.

But the golden Roman eagles he had put on the east temple gate were torn down by 40 pious nobles, who deemed the heraldry unholy. He imprisoned them in the hippodrome.

Then he learned from eastern scholars about this supposed "Child-King," but none would name the parents, and all Herod's spies and agents had been unable to discover the special Child.

VERY WELL! A plague on the close-lipped rabble! His order to slay them all, every male child under 2 would answer that. Life is cheap! Herod's wrinkled hand wiped at his milk-wet lips.

Just a few months later, on his deathbed, he learned his son, Antipater, had invented the evidence against his half-brothers, Marianne's sons, whom Herod had killed. In frothing rage, he condemned Antipater to drowning.

Dying in agony, he issued his last order to burn alive the 40 men who had torn down the eagles.

His final mumbled phrases were about Marianne. He was buried on Frank mountain south of Bethlehem. And Jesus then was nearly 2.

It was the end of a potentially great man, a clever, energetic man, but in whom evil bore its implacable fruits.

He killed his one good mate and his own sons, and left many Rachel's weeping for their sons in Bethlehem, but he could not stay the Son of Man.

He died in terror — of a Baby. (Tomorrow: A Bridegroom's Travails.)

Court Won't Reconsider Segregation Decision

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court Monday refused to reconsider its Nov. 13 decision banning racial segregation on local buses.

The clerk's office said official notice of the decision now will be mailed to Montgomery, Ala., in two or three days. The notification procedure had been delayed by the request for reconsideration.

The plea had been made in separate petitions filed by the City of Montgomery and the Alabama Public Service Commission.

The city's petition said the November ruling left unanswered various "vital" law questions. The PSC said it had wrongfully taken from Alabama the state's police power.

The Supreme Court announced its action in two brief orders which said merely that the petitions for rehearing were denied, as well as a request that the tribunal clarify its Nov. 13 action.

Shipyards To Hum Building New Tankers; Problems Faced

NEW YORK (AP)—Larger shipyards and more steel mills to build bigger oil tankers appear today as other likely aftermaths of the Suez Canal mess.

Uncle Sam may be asked to help out with tax incentives and other forms of aid.

Many of the world's existing shipyards will be busy for the next five years on orders booked some time back. And when some of the giant new tankers go into service they will find both the Suez and Panama canals and also a number of the world's ports too shallow for them when loaded.

The canal's blocking has already brought oil rationing to Europe and another financial crisis to England. It has also seen a 12-week climb in rates in the shipping charter market and in some instances has doubled the price of used vessels. It has sent Uncle Sam scrambling to shake the mothballs out of many of his laid up World War II ships.

Shipping space, already tight as the United States was in the midst of a record in and out flow of imports and exports, has been at a premium since the trouble with Nasser started.

The National Petroleum Council, helping the U. S. interior department plan the oil lift to Europe, reports that shipyards open to the western world are building or have signed contracts for 314 vessels of 25,352,200 deadweight tons. The west's present tanker fleet consists of 2,506 vessels of 42,195,426 deadweight tons. The council reports present plans call for increasing the fleet by 29 million tons in the next five years.

Oilmen say the existing shipyards can't carry out the stepped up program and must build more capacity.

The yards say one of their bottlenecks is the tight supply of steel plate. The steel industry has asked Washington to allow fast depreciation write-offs for tax purposes on increased capacity it would like to build—some of it for the kind of steel the shipbuilding industry asks.

In Washington the marine administration has given tentative approval to the building of 63 new tankers and bulk carriers. Its latest step is to approve the proposals of 15 shipping lines to build 27 new tankers and two bulk carriers at a total cost of 325 million dollars.

'56 Figures Released On Ohio Major Crops

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Department of Agriculture year-end report released Monday estimates the 1956 wheat crop at 997,207,000 bushels and the corn crop at 3,451,292,000 bushels.

Burley tobacco production for 1956 is estimated at 494,000,000 pounds, five per cent above last year, but 15 per cent below average.

Ohio's estimated burley yield is 15,345,000 pounds, compared to 1955's yield of 14,322,000 pounds, the department said.

Here is a breakdown of Ohio's major crops, showing the acreage, yield per acre and total production respectively:

Corn—3,595,000 acres; 60 bushels per acre and 215,700,000 bushels. All wheat—1,526,000; 26; 39,676,000.
Oats—1,101,000; 43; 43,343,000.
Tobacco (all types)—13,200; 1,650 pounds per acre and 21,780,000 pounds.
Sugar beets—16,500; 12.1 tons per acre and 200,000 tons.
Potatoes — 12,500; 155 hundred-weight per acre and 1,938,000 bags of 100 pounds.

CASH GRAIN PRICES

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio Bureau of Markets cash grain prices: No 2 wheat, weak to mostly 2 cents lower, 2.24-2.27; No 2 ear corn, mostly unchanged, 1.75-1.79 per 100 lbs or 1.23-1.25 per bu. No 2 oats, mostly unchanged to 1 cent lower, .73-.76; No 1 soybeans, weak to 3 cents lower, 2.24-2.27.

Young Drivers take More Chances, But Are More Skillful, Patrol Says

Drivers under 20 take more chances but mile for mile they apply more driving knowledge and skill than any other age group, reports Cpl. John Miller of the Salem Patrol Post.

Miller said younger drivers are helped by training courses in high schools and they can adjust to rules of the road more easily than people over 60. Older drivers most of the time are too set in their ways and find it difficult to keep pace with 1956 driving conditions, he said.

THE MOST DANGEROUS area in the Salem patrol district is on Rt. 62, Miller said, just east of Alliance where the road is four lanes wide. Other "accident-prone" areas are suburban East Liverpool near Glenmore and Calcutta. Miller said most of the accidents on Rt. 62 near Alliance are turning mishaps; in the Calcutta region, pedestrian-auto accidents are quite prevalent. A third perilous highway in the county is Rt. 45 between Salem and Lisbon.

More accidents happen in the winter because motorists are usually driving at excessive speeds for road conditions, the corporal said.

Miller said the three most common types of accidents were the result of:

1. Losing control on a curve or skidding on ice.
2. Improper signaling.
3. Failing to yield the right of way.

THERE WERE 69 accidents in Columbiana County during November, fifteen of them on county roads, Miller said that more accidents happen on state routes because they are more heavily traveled. He said the Georgetown and Depot Roads account for one-half of the district's county road accidents. About 20 per cent of all mishaps take place on county roads, Miller reported.

Statistics from the Ohio Department of Highway Safety show that Columbiana County had 1,217 accidents during the first nine months of 1956. Eight were fatal mishaps, 379 resulted in injuries and 830 involved property damages only, the report showed.

The figures also showed that more accidents happen on Saturday than any other day of the week and that more men are involved in mishaps than women. There are more accidents in the 25 to 34 age group than in any other, the report revealed.

3 File Suits Against Firm, Truck Driver

LISBON — Three suits asking personal damages totaling $41,000 were filed in Common Pleas Court Monday as the aftermath of two traffic accidents.

Herbert C. Nolan of Columbiana asked $5,000; Regis C. Boring of Columbiana asked $35,000; and Leeland Biggins of Lisbon sued for $1,000 for injuries sustained in the mishaps.

The Cut-Rite Produce Co. Inc., of Houston, Tex., and Jake Winograd, also of Houston, were named defendants in the suits.

The petitions claim that on Dec. 22, 1954 on Rt. 164 Nolan was a passenger in a car owned by him and driven by Biggins when the auto collided with a truck owned by the Cut-Rite firm, and driven by Winograd. The latter was trying to turn around after he found he couldn't drive the truck under the underpass at the Columbiana village limits, according to the petition.

Boring was riding in another car which ran into the truck immediately after the first mishap.

2 Ohio Bandits Nabbed After Florida Spree

PALATKA, Fla. — Two Ohio bandits traded gunfire with police and led them on a 26-mile chase Monday night before police captured them when they smashed up a stolen truck.

Sheriff's officers said Herman Maroni, 26, of Morristown, and William H. Dayton, 27, of Massillon, held up five business places and abducted three persons. None of the three was harmed.

The holdup men told police, "we expect to get killed in two or three weeks," but made no explanation.

Maroni was wounded in the leg, police said. Dayton ran into a nearby woods and was discovered hiding under a trailer.

Accuse Cleveland Police Of Beating

CLEVELAND — Two Negro men—one a college graduate and the other an army sergeant—have accused two off-duty policemen of beating them until they sank to the floor because they were drinking beer in a cafe with a white man.

One of the two policemen denied the accusation. The other could not be reached for comment.

The two Negroes are Robert Barbee, 30, who has a degree in psychology and works for the Social Security Administration; and Army Sgt. Herman Humphries, 26.

Barbee said he and Humphries were sitting in the cafe with a white friend last Monday when the two policemen approached them and started abusing them and calling them vile names.

The white man left and then, Barbee said, the policemen started beating him and Humphries. He said the officers took them to central police station to continue the beating.

That, he said, "was the worst. While five or six uniformed policemen stood around the wall and watcher, they slugged us until we sank to the floor."

He said they were locked up for two nights without charge and were not permitted to call an attorney. On Wednesday, they were charged with disorderly conduct and intoxication, pleaded innocent and were released after their case was continued.

One of the patrolmen, Edward Shaniuk, told a reporter the Negroes were disorderly and that one of them tried to hit him first.

Mayor Anthony J. Celebrezze and Safety Director John McCormick said they would confer with Chief Frank W. Story taking any action.

Will Attend Session On Lake-River Road

LISBON — County engineer Charles Snyder and commissioners Galen Greenisen, W. A. Southan and W. A. Hunston will attend a meeting called by Mahoning County Engineer Samuel Gould Jr. at his office in Youngstown Thursday at 11 a.m. to discuss the plans of the new lake-river road.

The meeting scheduled in Columbus last Thursday was cancelled. E. S. Preston and O. W. Greubmeyer of the State Highway Department plan to fly to Youngstown to attend the meeting.

Plans will be shown of the tentative location of the lake-river road which will pass through Ashabula, Trumbull, Mahoning and Columbiana counties.

Named Case Institute Nuclear Program Head

CLEVELAND — Appointment of Dr. Kenneth T. Bell as academic director of the nuclear reactor technology program at Case Institute of Technology was announced Monday.

The appointment was announced by Dr. T. Keth Klennan, president of Case, in conjunction with an announcement from Oak Ridge, Tenn., that Case was one of the six universities selected to take part in a program aimed at doubling the number of nuclear reactor specialists trained at the Oak Ridge School of Reactor Technology.

Special courses in the new program will represent new combinations of material designed to meet the needs of scientists and engineers from private industry who will spend six months at Case and six months at Oak Ridge.

Dr. Bell, formerly an engineer at the Hanford Atomic Products Operation in Richland, Wash., was graduated from Case in 1951.

FIVE FINED HERE

Five persons were fined or forfeited bonds totaling $220 Sunday and Monday for traffic violations by Mayor Dean B. Crammer.

Fined were: John Alexander, 46, of 189 W. Wilson St., $15, speeding; Gordon Sutherland, 18, of Alliance, $20, speeding; Sara Fitzsimmons, 36, of Warwood, W. Va., $10, crossing the yellow line; and Fred Ziegler Jr., 29, of Alliance, $150 and three days in jail, driving while intoxicated.

Forfeiting a $25 bond for reckless operation was Revel Foote, 18, of Alliance.

Pleasant Valley Chapter, OES Installs New Officers

HANOVERTON — The December meeting of Pleasant Valley Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, was held Thursday in the lodge room of the Masonic Temple.

Mrs. Lee Cole, worthy matron, conducted the opening and business session prior to the annual installation of officers.

Recognition was given to Alyce Jones of Canton, District Deputy Grand Matron; Betty Herrington of Augusta, grand representative; visiting matrons and patrons, district officers and past matrons and patrons of the chapter.

The altar and charter were draped in memory of a past grand patron and Emanuel Cox, past patron of Pleasant Valley.

Those assisting Mrs. Rachel Green of Sebring, installing officer, were Marshal, Thelma Brumbaugh; installing marshals, Melva Pelley and Elizabeth Trough; chaplain, Peg Weyant; conductress, Camille Mason; organist, Alta Roach.

Warder and Sentinel, George and Gertrude Walton, and soloist, Helen Bennett.

The new corp of officers and their respective stations are: Worthy Matron, Bernice Stoudt; Worthy Patron, Lowell Mountz; associate matron and patron, Celeste Conser and Lee Cole; secretary, Melva Pelley; treasurer, Elinor Humphrey.

Conductress and associate conductress, Dorothy Ward and Bernice Arter; chaplain, Ethel Mountz; Marshal, Reba Myers; organist, Louise Clark; Adah, Ruth, Esther, Martha and Electa, respectively. Mary Wilson, Dora Mae Laughlin, Ann Sanor, Helen Ernst, and Phyllis Norris.

Warder and Sentinel, Helen Stoudt and Harvey Trough; musicians, Paulina Sloss and Elizabeth Trough.

At the close of installation Mrs. Bennett sang "O Holy Night."

Junior past matron Mrs. Cole and patron Bruce Pelley were presented their jewels by Mrs. Sanor and George Walton. A vocal duet, "Love Eternal," was by Mrs. Sloss and Mrs. Trough.

The chapter room was in a blue and white decor. An upright plaque of blue, graced with a white dove and glittering star, flanked by angels and an open Bible, adorned the East.

Mrs. Stoudt will use as her motto for the year, "Peace and Harmony."

The lunch was served to the 150 members and visitors from a table centered with a miniature replica of the plaque in the chapter room.

Mrs. Stoudt presented her installing officers with planters and the 1956 officers presented Mrs. Cole with a gift.

Miss Thelma Strahm will be lunch committee chairman for the January meeting.

Mrs. Stoudt announced the following committee chairmen for the ensuing year: Auditing, Camille Mason; by-laws, Bruce Pelley; examining, Helen Crist; instruction, Lowell Mountz; paraphernalia, Orvie Cole; vouching, Ann Sanor; decorating, Helen Stoudt; dining room, Thelma Brumbaugh; kitchen, Alma Wilson; and ways and means, Elinor Humphrey.

Political Pendulum

Paul Butler's proposal for a Democratic advisory committee has been turned down resoundingly by the party's congressional leadership.

Everything about politics goes all the way around the circle and comes out where it went in, if you wait long enough. The Democrats' congressional leaders, all conservatives and most of them southerners, are back in control.

The Democrats, having failed twice with Adlai Stevenson, who entered presidential politics as a substitute for Harry Truman when his number was taken off the board in 1952, are on their way back to the conservatism that was their trademark 25 years ago when Franklin D. Roosevelt replaced Herbert Hoover on a pledge to balance the budget by cutting spending to the bone.

Then came the New Deal. When it finally yielded to World War II as the dynamic element of politics, southern conservatives had a working alliance with Republican conservatives — and this coalition also curbed the momentum of the postwar Truman Fair Deal until that doctrine had run its course in the political cycle.

Today, the Republican party under Dwight Eisenhower is moving into the place in the political cycle being vacated by the Democrats. As the latter move to the right under the dominant influence of southern conservatives, Republicans move further to the left under the influence of dominant northern liberals — "dynamic conservatives," as President Eisenhower prefers to call them.

This endless trading of positions is the most puzzling yet the most easily understood pattern in politics. It is the result of the endless struggle inside each party by its own extremists — the struggle that transcends in intensity and importance the struggle between the parties themselves.

If the struggle ceased and the parties became static, the two-party system would collapse.

Still Hanging Fire

When toll roads were still in the talking stage, except for the Pennsylvania Turnpike, it was fun to argue that free roads of similar quality should parallel all toll roads to protect the motorist.

But when toll roads became actualities, no one claimed that toll-road authorities should have to compete for traffic, in view of the fact toll-road bonds were guaranteed by the states, themselves.

Besides, it was not ordinary motorists who were going to take advantage of competing free roads but commercial truckers who had discovered a powerful economic weapon in refusal to pay tolls that did not meet their specifications.

Ohio, as it happened, was the only state that had to grapple with the problem because its geography and multiplicity of roads made it the only state offering truckers alternative routes when its first toll road, running east and west, was ready. This will be similarly true of its second toll road, which will run northeast to southwest.

The problem never has been solved in Ohio. A member of the Ohio Turnpike Commission, Maj. Gen. Robert S. Beightler, believes a solution now must be forthcoming. Pointing to costly improvements on Rt. 18, which parallels the Ohio Turnpike, he says: "If you maintain parallel roads which are free, the turnpike will go bankrupt in two years."

Ohio's governor-elect, C. William O'Neill, has promised to develop a systematic highway policy for Ohio. This looks like one of his top problems, to be solved before Ohio starts a second turnpike.

That's The Idea

Good will always finds a way to express itself, but Christmas lights and decorations provide a mode of expression in keeping with modern communications.

They reach what advertising men describe as the "mass audience." They have multiple impact. It can only be imagined, for example, how many persons might see and be moved by one Christmas decoration in just an ordinary house bordering a busy highway.

Or by an unusual decoration reported in the Dec. 13 issue of the Midland (Pa.) News — a 240-foot-high "Christmas tree" created with colored lights on the massive bulk of a No. 1 blast furnace at Crucible Steel's Midland works.

Crucible's electrical and millwright employees carry out this project each year with company approval — just to wish the world at large a Merry Christmas.

That's the idea of good will, which is extended to one and all, not just to those selected for special reasons.

A little change gives a person a better view of life, but it takes a lot of change to cover the cost.

The more relatives you have the greater the reason for keeping your secret of success a secret.

U. N. Resolution Viewed As Blow To Red Prestige

David Lawrence

Prime Minister Eden and Premier Mollet and the peoples of Great Britain and France can derive a good deal of satisfaction over what has just happened in the United Nations.

For without the noble example of self-denial which the British and French gave in agreeing to withdraw their troops from the Suez area, there would have been no such emphasis possible on the contrasting behavior of the Soviet Union with regard to Hungary.

Sometimes things work out for the best, and in this instance, had it not been for the original display of impatience by Britain and France over Nasser's tactics of aggression, there would not have been the same opportunity today to rally the free world in a great moral denunciation of what the armies of the Soviets are doing in Hungary.

Today the whole world sees Britain and France accepting the verdict of the free world that negotiation of a settlement of the Suez Canal question should be resumed without involving the pressure of military force.

THE WHOLE WORLD sees also how the Soviet Union is depriving the people of Hungary of their rights and liberties as an independent nation by the cruel hand of an occupying army.

The U.N., by its resolution, "condemns the violation of the charter by the government of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics in depriving Hungary of its liberty and independence and the Hungarian people of the exercise of their fundamental rights."

It charges the Soviet Union with "violating the political independence of Hungary" by "using its armed forces against the Hungarian people," and calls upon Moscow to "desist forthwith from any form of intervention in the internal affairs of Hungary" and to make "immediate arrangements" under United Nations observation, for the withdrawal of its forces and the "re-establishment of the political independence of Hungary."

Many observers ask, "What good will words do?"

THE QUESTION ignores the tremendous power of moral force in the modern world of extensive communication. The fact that the United Nations condemns the Soviet Union for the first time in the history of the international organization—will become known throughout the iron curtain countries. It is a signal to the people generally that the Soviet Union, which has heretofore tried to give the impression that it was standing as a great government on a parity with other governments, is no longer doing so.

Most important is the encouragement which the U.N. resolution will give to other peoples behind the iron curtain to try the same tactics that the Hungarian people have so bravely put into practice.

The free world doesn't want to see its armed forces used to "liberate" the oppressed peoples in the satellite countries. For to do this would merely give the Soviets an excuse for a general war.

LIKEWISE, a revolt from within any one country has far more chance of winning the sympathy and support of the other near-by countries than would the interjection of an external factor which could serve as a means of rallying national passions.

It is a delicate situation for the Western allies today, and they wisely agreed at the NATO meeting last week not to offer any program of military help if East Germany should revolt.

This doesn't mean that private organizations of emigres supported by voluntary contributions do not aid the underground resisters. That's going on all the time.

The Moscow government, in fact, is trying to prove that all this activity is inspired by the United States government, but it isn't so.

When the U.N. takes up the Soviet resolution demanding an inquiry on the subject, an excellent opportunity is afforded to tell the real story of what various little groups on this side of the iron curtain are trying to do to liberate their countrymen.

IT MIGHT AFFORD the basis of an appeal by some of those same organizations to the U.N. to plead with the citizens of free countries to send arms and help of all kinds. Maybe Moscow will regret bringing up the subject.

The U.N. cannot but be regarded today as a powerful moral force in the world. What it has done in condemning the Soviet Union stands out as a sensational step.

It is unfortunate that India, Egypt and Indonesia abstained from voting and gave the impression that they are afraid to offend the Soviet Union. But the fifty-five nations, including some members of the Asian-African bloc, who voted for the resolution spoke words that will be heard 'round the world.

Colored Clouds?

By THOMAS R. HENRY

There are red, green, black and blue rains.

These have been reported now and then for centuries. Once they aroused superstitious terror. In recent years the causes have been analyzed: Masses of colored substances of some sort are swept into the upper atmosphere by updrafts and then incorporated in raindrops.

But now colored rain has put an idea into the minds of some meteorologists looking to the future. If it is possible for air masses to be colored accidentally, would it not be feasible to color them intentionally and hence keep track of their movements by various color detecting devices?

This idea, proposed to and considered by the U.S. Weather Bureau, is rather far-fetched at present but it forms part of the urgent search for better and cheaper methods of keeping track of what is happening in the upper atmosphere from hour to hour.

About the best means available at present is use of "radio-sondes," balloon-carried robots that automatically record and radio back to earth temperatures, pressures, wind speed and direction.

These no longer are sufficient for the present demands of forecasters, however. For one thing, they cost from $40 to $50 each and one seldom is recovered after a flight. Obviously they cannot be used in unlimited quantities.

There are more than 5 billion cubic miles of air above the earth. A lot of sondes would be required to keep track of what is happening in all of it.

It has been suggested that as little as a puff of some colored substance, automatically released from a rocket or thrown out the window of a jet plane, might be enough to color the clouds over half the United States.

Artist With the Pen

By JAMES B. SIBBSON

WASHINGTON (AP)—It takes Mrs. Lawrence E. Imhoff nine seconds to write the name Tom Jones. A name like Jonathan Fitzpatrick takes about two seconds longer.

Scribblers may think this pretty slow, but Mrs. Imhoff can't agree. What she means is the time it takes her to fill in names — in extremely fancy script — on invitations to next month's inauguration balls.

A penmanship expert and wife of former Ohio Democratic Congressman Lawrence E. Imhoff of St. Clairsville, she has been working at this by herself for 21 straight days.

And she estimates she is a little better than half way through a pile of several hundred invitations for the four dances.

A total of 14,600 is coming to the affair.

"A man from a television station timed me the other day," Mrs. Imhoff told a reporter. "He found it took me 22 seconds for a four line envelope and from 9 to 11 seconds on the name."

"That's my best time. I don't ordinarily write that fast. You know, it's like being a musician. You need a break every hour or so."

"But I've never had writer's cramp in all my life. That is because I don't hold the pen tightly. I hold it more like a violin bow."

Barbs

Owners of a Pennsylvania bar were hit hard by an explosion, but their spirits were high.

Long Time No See

The Next Target For Nasser

By ALAN DORIAN

BAGHDAD — As British and French forces complete withdrawal from the Suez Canal zone, President Gamal Abdel Nasser of Egypt has already begun zeroing in on his next target — destruction of the anti-communist Baghdad Pact.

Nasser's immediate objective, backed also by Syria and Arab nationalists in Jordan and Saudi Arabia, is to remove the pro-Western government of Iraqi Premier Nuri Sayeed and replace it with a coalition cabinet that would include Communists now in jail.

Recent rioting and religious strife has been fomented in Baghdad by Egypt and Syria, according to government intelligence reports. Having failed to budge Nuri Sayeed in this way, observers say, Egypt and Syria are applying new pressures on Iraq. But the great debate about his career was wound up a long time ago.

It was whether or not a colored ballplayer would be able to play in the majors on his merits as an athlete, without being handicapped by his racial identity. Robinson settled it in a hurry.

Ten years ago next spring he started his career in the big time, equipped with some of the fastest reflexes and finest athletic resources of his generation. If he decides to play for the Giants instead of the Dodgers next year, he will still be proving what needs no more proving now—that a Negro ballplayer can perform on merit, with no racial handicap.

It was not easy for him, and it was not easy for some of the white ballplayers who had to choke down their racial prejudice. But it worked out for the reason that finally will eliminate arbitrary prejudice against Negroes in a dominantly-white country.

Jackie Robinson proved he had class with something to spare. He was still proving it in the world series this year. He drove in the 10th inning run that kept the Dodgers even with the Yankees through the sixth game.

At the age of 38 he is still one of baseball's most brilliant and interesting players. Players respect him and fans watch him believe: 1. Install a pro-Nasser coalition cabinet including left-wingers that would eventually end the pro-British Hashemite dynasty and proclaim a republic.

2. To withdraw Iraq from the Baghdad Pact, breaking the chain of pro-Western nations (Turkey, Iraq, Iran and Pakistan) on the southern borders of the Soviet Union, and to bring Iraq into an Egyptian-Syrian-Jordanian military alliance supplied with Soviet arms and "technicians."

3. To cut off Britain and France from Iraq's oil, which amounts to 34 million tons annually from oil fields only 200 miles from the Russian border.

These steps would eventually lead to creation of a "fertile crescent" state through union of Iraq, Syria and Jordan, Arab nationalists hope. Union has been impossible as long as Syria pursued an anti-Western policy and Iraq was pro-British.

Nasser is an avowed backer of such a state as an instrument of his overall plan for a unified Arab world dominated by Egypt; for Russia the result would be realization of a dream of two centuries—a "warm water window" on the Persian Gulf, only a short leap from the world's richest oilfields in Kuwait and Saudi Arabia.

The Strength Of All

By TRUMAN TWILL

cause he is an athlete, not because he is a Negro — and that has been his contribution to the solution of a tough problem.

It has been the contribution of all Negroes lucky enough to be able to do things outstandingly well in a country where Negroes have been on the defensive. It has been the contribution of Joe Louis, George Washington Carver, Booker T. Washington, Marion Anderson and Ralph Bunche.

It has been the contribution of thousands of obscure members of the race who have proved themselves in competition. They have demonstrated that Negroes can stand on their merits as individuals.

Ultimately it will be clear that no race ever made more progress on merit in so short a time as Negroes made in the United States. It is beginning to be clear now wherever the appraisal is made objectively.

Circumstances have put them on the spot. Their critics and detractors have kept them there. Their failures and shortcomings have been exaggerated; their triumphs and aptitudes have been minimized.

But the whites who grasped the potentialities of the Negro are being vindicated. They have helped the race change from a questionable asset into a recognized asset.

What Jackie Robinson decides to do next is unimportant. What he already has had a part in doing is historically one of the most important things that ever happened in a society whose strength is the composite strength of all its members, regardless of race or creed.

So They Say

If we are to take the lion's share of talented people and leave our schools and our government agencies to scrape along as best they can, we shall dry up the well-springs of our social and political progress and leave our children a tarnished heritage of mediocrity. —Henry Ford II.

Anyone must be far gone in pessimism if he thinks the danger of war in the area (Middle East) is as great as it was 30 days ago. The prospect of peace has considerably improved. —Secretary of State Dulles.

Through prompt use of increasing supplies of the vaccine (Salk), the nation can go a long way — next year — toward elimination of this dread disease. —Marion B. Folsom, secretary of health, education, and welfare.

Once Over

By H. I. PHILLIPS

Backward, Oh, Backward

The 1957 motor cars bring to mind nostalgic memories of the first auto show we ever saw and the recollection of some of the earliest models.

The first auto we ever saw, as a kid, was a Pope-Hartford. The owner was the town's millionaire. We think the second was a Locomobile. We remember the Knox, the Stanley Steamer, the Stevens-Duryea, the Apperson Jackrabbit, the Jordan, the Oakland, Cole, Hupp, EMF and Maxwell.

As a cub reporter back home we went along as an observer on a "sealed-hood" Maxwell trip which got from New Haven, Conn., to the Pabst Cafe in Columbus Circle, New York, in nine hours without any disabling mechanical troubles!

The first car we ever bought (and it had to be a secondhand bargain) was a Stoddard-Dayton. It had an isinglass windshield that rolled up in good weather.

WE REMEMBER it had "Prestolite" tanks under the running board. To light the headlights you whipped out a copper key, twisted a nut on the tank, galloped to the front of the car and stuck a match into each lamp as the hissing noise told you the gas was on.

To start the motor you first fixed two "pointers" on the steering wheel. They were the gas and spark. If you didn't "set" 'em right you broke an arm when you turned the crank.

GETTING ANY CAR started on a cold winter morning was something requiring strength, determination and luck. We squawk today if the motor doesn't start purring the instant we press a button but to have any chance of starting that Stoddard-Dayton we first had to get a kettle of boiling water, soak a rag in it and wrap the rag around a manifold.

Then we had to open all the petcocks, of which there was one on top of each cylinder, and squirt in some raw gasoline. Next crank and crank and crank, until, after a half hour or more, the engine might start with explosions which you hear today only in the backfire of fire engines.

TIRE TROUBLE came under the head of regular business, here were no demountable rims and we did the job of removing a punctured tire by jacking her up and prying it off with heavy-duty tools. It exhausted all patience.

We remember an irascible home-town citizen, who, at the peak of this laborious job, was asked, "Having tire trouble?" by a curious passerby and slugged him with the tire iron and the Rubie Goldberg reply, "No, I am just having fun in an Easter egg-roll."

THE FIRST AUTO SHOW we ever saw was in the home-town armory and it had a dozen autos. Once we were press agent for a later show that was held in a banquet hall on the top floor of a 10-story hotel and all the models had to be hoisted from the street.

And we were publicist for the home-town auto club and remember the job of kindling enthusiasm for a "paper chase."

A lead car started off to a destination unknown and scattered confetti along the road. Autoists in search of adventure turned out to see if they could reach the rendezvous, only 35 miles away, in four or five hours. (Oscar, fetch us our linen dusters, goggles, gloves and hamper of sandwiches! We're a pushover for good clean fun.)

PRINCETON HAS a new president in 37-year-old Robert E. Goheen. He once wanted to be a doctor and we assume the medical profession now cries with reluctance and regret "Goheen, Goheen, Gone!"

Both Andy Griffith and Myron McCormick, stars in the stage's "No Time for Sergeants" have been chosen for the movie roles. Hollywood seems to be departing from its time-honored custom of scratching actors who have made astounding stage portrayals and signing up performers in no way suited for the parts.

Santa and the SECRET ROOM

by LUCRECE HUDGINS BEALE

Synopsis: McGillicuddy sent me back to the sorcerer. I offered to get him lots of gold if he would turn everyone back into themselves. He agreed but said I must get him the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow.

CHAPTER THIRTEEN

"That's impossible!" I cried. "Whoever could get the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow?"

"Not I," said the sorcerer sadly. "If I could I wouldn't have to turn people into gold. But I thought perhaps you might get it for me because I must have gold!"

"But," I protested, "it would take time and in three days it will be Christmas. If Santa isn't turned out of stone by then there'll be no Christmas in all the world!"

"True, true," said the goldseeker. "So in order to make you hurry I'll sprinkle this latest powder on you."

I twisted and turned and kicked but I could not escape him. The awful dust fell on my face.

"In three days you will turn to gold. But if you bring me before then the bottomless pot of gold from the end of the rainbow I shall free you and all your friends from the spell."

He turned me loose and I fell to the floor. He rushed to the door and opened it. "Go!" he ordered. "Get me gold or you will turn to stone."

I STUMBLED OUT, dazed and frightened and sure that I'd already turned to stone. I ran out of the palace and found McGillicuddy waiting for me under the bush.

"What did he say? Did he agree to turn Santa back into himself if you brought him gold?"

"Yes," I gasped. "But only if I bring him a pot of gold."

"Why that's easy enough! Only a pot of gold!"

"You don't understand. It must be the bottomless pot of gold from the end of the rainbow!"

I sank down on my heels and buried my face in my hands. McGillicuddy clicked his tongue. "Tis impossible. 'Tis out of this world!"

"But it must be done," I whispered. "Or I, too, will turn into stone."

Then I told him how the sorcerer had sprinkled me with dust that would not work for three days. If I brought back the gold in that time he would put an ointment on my nose that would save me.

"But I can never find this pot of gold!" I cried. "I don't even know where to begin to look."

McGILICUDDY scratched his head. "One thing leads to another," he drawled. "Now I've been thinking that if we start at the very end we might trace things back to the very beginning. That way we might get to the pot of gold."

I could not understand what he meant. I cried crossly. "Talk sense! There's no time for fooling."

"I am talking sense," the elf insisted. He pulled a tiny gold ring from his pocket. "A brownie friend made this ring for me. We'll go to him and find where he got the gold to make the ring. Maybe he got it from the pot of gold we are searching for."

"How do we find your brownie friend?" I asked.

"Climb on my back," ordered McGillicuddy.

I stared down at him. I am very small but he was not half my size and I thought if I got on his back I would squash him to the ground.

But I did as he told me and he did not squash. He either got bigger or I got smaller. Suddenly he was running off through some woods and I was fast asleep.

When I woke up I found we were in a village of mushroom houses. In the middle of the village square was a large sign saying, "Brownieville. Home of the Gold Ring Makers."

I knew it was here our search began.

PACES CAGE SCORING

AKRON, Ohio (P)—Forward Ronnie Mayer of the Akron Goodyear Wingfoots leads individual scorers in the National Industrial Basketball league with 78 points in three games, an average of 25 per game.

Mayer's 31 points against the Denver-Chicago Truckers Sunday helped the Akron team to its third victory without a defeat, and a half-game league lead.

Snowbound A Month, Hunter Reaches Safety

MANISTIQUE, Mich. (P)—Snowbound for nearly a month in Michigan's north woods, a 65-year-old hunter shoveled his way out and was reported safe Monday.

Herman A. Simonds of Gregory, in south central Michigan, was in good condition, state police said, although he lost 25 pounds during the ordeal.

Simonds went into the Upper Peninsula Nov. 20. He was trapped next day by a four foot snowfall. His family reported him missing Dec. 9 when the hunting season ended and he failed to return home. State police had been searching for him with an airplane.

Simonds, a retired railroad engineer, said he was "just caught" by the heavy snow but "kept shoveling a path" for his pickup truck and finally worked his way out Sunday. For shelter he had a sleeping cabin mounted on the back of the truck.

All he had to eat, he said, were eggs, bread and dried sardines with melted snow for drinking water.

SEEK LOST PLANE

CLEVELAND (P)—The Ohio wing of the Civil Air Patrol Monday night discontinued search for an air force trainer, missing since Dec. 8 with two men aboard. A CAP spokesman said 92 aircraft had covered 23,000 square miles in nine days of searching, without locating the T-33.

Sharp Contrasts Mark Change From Five-Term Lausche To Governor-Elect Bill O'Neill

EDITOR'S NOTE—This is the second of five articles sketching the people and problems involved as the Republican party takes solid control of the state government next month for the first time in 28 years.

By ART PARKS

COLUMBUS, Ohio (P)—"Billy the Kid" isn't a kid anymore. He's "Bill" O'Neill now. He's 40 (almost 41) and the governor-elect of the state of Ohio.

C. William O'Neill is a "big man" now. He has been growing in political stature ever since he first was a candidate for the Ohio House of Representatives when he was barely old enough to vote (22). In physical stature he stopped growing a little too soon. By stretching he can make 5-feet-4½.

But he has a winning grin, a lot of "moxie"—political and administrative—and a way of making you forget he's no giant.

C. William O'Neill will become Ohio's governor Jan. 14. The "C." stands for nothing—his birth certificate dated Feb. 14, 1916, proves it. The "why" of the initial "C." is a minor mystery even to C. William himself.

It would be difficult to find a more marked set of contrasts than the change from five-term Democrat Gov. Frank J. Lausche to Republican Bill O'Neill.

Aside from physical stature, national origin, politics and such, the men themselves present a contrast: Lausche is by way of being a mystic—O'Neill is as practical as ham and eggs.

The men have one thing in common—and that probably results from the pressure on both for public appearances. In the eyes of intellectuals, each has a "corny" streak—a tendency toward wordiness without particular significance and an undue reliance upon the eternal verities.

Newsman probably will find O'Neill difficult to "cover." He doesn't have the world's sharpest news sense. Besides, he sometimes gets so wrapped up in what he is doing that he doesn't recognize the fact that other citizens of Ohio likely would find his activities most interesting — news, in fact.

By contrast, outgoing Gov. Lausche has a flair for news, seemingly an instinct for dropping the unexpected word where it will do the most good.

O'Neill does not have a naturally warm personality. He is a taskmaster, but has won an unexpectedly fierce loyalty among his staff members.

O'Neill never has lost an election. He served six consecutive terms in the Ohio House beginning with his election in 1933. He became majority whip in 1943 and speaker in 1947. During his last term in 1949-50 he was minority leader in a Democratic house. In 1950 he stepped into the office of attorney general and won re-election twice with no apparent struggle.

He didn't get his law degree until after he started to serve in the House and he took some time out for Army service during World War II. When he became attorney general in 1951 at the age of 34, he was the youngest chief legal officer in Ohio history.

By the time O'Neill was ready to try for the governorship this year, he was understandably just a little weary of all the "youngest" records. And most of all he was tired of "Billy."

So the new governor of nine million Ohioans is "just plain Bill."

Next: Nelsonville's Stan Mechem, "the man" of the Ohio Senate.

Welcome Wagon Newcomers Have Annual Yule Program

The Welcome Wagon Newcomers Club held its annual Christmas dinner party Friday at the Lape Hotel. The tables, decorated with pine and silver and red candles, featured a large cake decorated to depict the work of the Welcome Wagon hostess. The cake was presented to Mrs. Vesta King, local hostess.

Christmas corsages were individual favors marking the 45 place settings. Each member told when she joined the club and where she lived before moving to Salem. A gift exchange was enjoyed.

Charter members present were Mrs. Robert Marshall, Mrs. Wesley Becker and Mrs. William Barry. Past presidents in attendance were Mrs. Russell Merrifield, Mrs. Robert Watterson III and Mrs. Daniel Dunbar. Mrs. Oscar Lodge of Lisbon, a guest, and three new members, Mrs. Kenneth Pelley, Mrs. Norman Gilsdorf and Mrs. Lewis Bowser, were welcomed.

Mrs. King gave a short history of the club, recalling that it was formed when 10 members gathered at her home on E. State St. in April of 1948. There are now 45 members.

Mrs. Dunbar was program chairman, and Mrs. Merrifield served as mistress of ceremonies. The group sang carols, and a highlight of the program was a "This is Your Life Skit" for Mrs. Kenneth Lodge. Mrs. Lodge organized the Waggin' Tongue Players Club, the Charades group and the Waggin' Tongue News. She was presented a gift from the group. A gift also was presented to Miss Dorene Buchanan, who sold the most tickets for the mink stole project.

Mrs. Norman Flack was general chairman of the affair. She was assisted by Mrs. George Dailey, Mrs. J. A. Engel, Mrs. James Cook, Mrs. Richard Milner and Mrs. Dunbar.

A flower demonstration is scheduled for the Jan. 23 meeting in the Ruth Smucker House.

Hearthstone Class Has Dinner Fete

Thirty-four persons attended the progressive dinner party of the Hearthstone Class of the First Baptist Church held Sunday evening.

300 At Knox School Join In Program

Over 300 students at Knox School took part in the presentation of the school's annual Christmas program Monday evening before 800 parents who gathered in the school.

Knox students will recess classes Friday afternoon with the Christmas vacation extending to Jan. 2.

Monday's program was in the form of a pageant, "Still Shines the Star" by Karin Aspratt, under the direction of Mary Lou Mane, vocal music director, and Delbert Smoke, instrumental music director. Assisting were class room teachers.

John Pickens, principal at Knox School, welcomed the parents and spoke briefly on the recent consolidation of Knox with the Mahoning Local School District. Pickens told the gathering that the recent raise in salaries of Knox teachers was a beneficial result of the merger.

Decorations and lighting effects were arranged by John Timme, and the stage crew for the presentation included Clyde Bjorkman, Bob Fogarasher, Norman Wallace, Dellious Longobardi, and Robert Smith.

Ushers included Dean Howman, George Schultz, and Margaret Wallace. Lana Hoffman was piano accompanist and Karen Altenhof the violinist for the pageant.

During a social hour the Band Mothers Club and Parent-Teacher Association conducted a benefit.

The 700 students at Knox along with bus drivers, teachers, and school personnel will enjoy the annual Christmas dinner to be served Thursday at the school.

stage will open another 15-mile-wide strip to the Yugoslavs. That will leave the Israelis still in control of much of the peninsula.

Egyptian guerrillas—quiet for a day after a weekend of bloodshed—resumed their harassment of the departing British - French forces yesterday at the coasts.

A Foreign Legionnaire, the first of the French forces to be killed by guerrillas, was struck by rifle fire as he boarded an LST (tank landing ship). Other Legionnaires rushed ashore, flushed out a sniper hideaway and arrested three guerrillas.

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP)—Israeli forces pulled back another 15 miles on the Sinai Peninsula today.

This carried the withdrawal to a line about 47 miles east of the Suez Canal.

Yugoslav units of the U. N. emergency force are occupying the territory evacuated by the Israelis.

There was no official indication how soon Israel's forces will pull back the remaining 125 miles to the border.

The Israelis actually have withdrawn most of their forces from the peninsula leaving behind only patrols and garrisons at forward positions and key military centers.

Most of the reservists among the six brigades which invaded Sinai have been demobilized.

The Israelis have removed from Sinai all captured Egyptian vehicles, arms and equipment which could be salvaged. They also blew up roads and set out minefields in their withdrawal. The Israelis recently gave assurances to the United Nations that road destructions would stop.

Supreme Court Turns Down Sheppard Plea

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court Monday refused for the second time to review the trial of Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard, Cleveland osteopath serving a life sentence for the bludgeoning slaying of his wife.

The high tribunal's first denial was announced Nov. 13. Sheppard's counsel then filed a petition asking reconsideration.

Sheppard was convicted in a sensational trial two years ago. His counsel in asking the second time for a Supreme Court review of the case said "Roman Holiday" trials would become the pattern for the country if the high tribunal allowed the conviction to stand unchanged.

Justice Burton took no part in considering the Sheppard case appeal.

Lists Canton Death Accidental Homicide

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—Stark County Sheriff Harry Grossglauss today listed as accidental homicide the shooting Monday of Elijah Campbell, 44. No charges were filed.

Grossglauss quoted Campbell's wife, Iva, as saying that her husband came home drunk and began beating her and their three children.

Mrs. Campbell said her husband went into another room of their home after a .22 caliber pistol following an argument, the sheriff added.

During a struggle over the gun, Sheriff Grossglauss quoted Mrs. Campbell, the weapon discharged accidentally and the bullet struck her husband.

Boy, 4, Injured In Truck Collision

Theodore Todd, 4, son of Robert D. Todd, 29, of 272 W. 14th St., was treated and released from the Central Clinic Monday night for tongue bites and contusions of the forehead received after he was involved in a two-truck collision that occurred in front of the home of James Minamyre, of 632 E. 6th St.

Police said the boy was riding in a truck driven by his father when it struck Minamyre's parked vehicle in front of Minamyre's home. Todd said the accident happened when he attempted to help his son who had tumbled off the seat.

No Damage Reported In Store Blaze Here

City firemen reported no damage was caused today in a waste-paper chute fire in Haldi's Shoe Store at 363 E. State St. Firemen were called at 9:01 a.m.

Otis Rhodes, a clerk, discovered the blaze when he opened the store this morning.

Firemen were called Monday at 4:03 p.m. to the home of Melvin Wukotich, 1231 E. 3rd St., where a smoking electrical appliance caused a scare fire.

Perry Grange will hold its meeting Wednesday at 8 p.m. in Salem Grange Hall instead of Perry Grange Hall as previously scheduled.

West Twp. Levy Loss Crimps School Funds

The 6-mill school levy that West District voters rejected Nov. 6 means a loss of $29,300 next year in state foundation program money, according to a letter from the state tax commission to County Auditor I. J. Vorndran, confirming Mr. Vorndran's 1956 tax rates for collection next year.

A 1-mill renewal levy which failed puts West Township below the necessary 10-mill required for participation in the foundation program. West's voted millage is now 9.2 mills for the schools.

The board also requests a 5-mill additional operating levy which, if passed, would have given them 15.2 mills.

The West Board of Education met with township trustees and county Supt. James L. McBride and County Auditor Vorndran Monday and it was decided that if the board did not hold a special election the trustees would put up $8 mill so that West would not lose their state foundation aid.

Older Peoples Group Plans First Meeting

The first meeting of the "Salem Senior Citizens Group" will be held Friday at the Memorial Building.

It is hoped regular meetings for this group of retired people 60 or over, will evolve from this initial meeting, announced Lee Burton, manager of the building.

The first meeting is under the sponsorship of the Memorial Building Association and the Park Commission. The program will include a social get-together; card and table games, refreshments, music and other activities.

The time is 1 to 3:30 p.m. All interested persons are invited.

Future programs will be planned by the group.

Two men were fined this morning in Mayor Dean B. Cranmer's court for traffic violations. They are: William Ritter, 20, of Wampun, Pa., $25, reckless operation; and Thomas Goetz, 19, of 371 S. Broadway, $30, speeding.

Churches Aid In Hungarian Relief

Salem churches are contributing to relief for Hungarian victims through their denominational channels and through interdenominational relief efforts, according to Rev. A. Laten Carter, president of the Salem Ministerial Association.

About $2 million in relief for victims of the Hungarian fight for freedom already has been utilized or made available by protestant churches in America, Rev. Carter says.

The Salem Council of Church Women is maintaining a world service depot for used clothing from the area at Westminster House of the Presbyterian Church at E. Third St. and Lundy Ave. Cash gifts may be given to the individual churches for distribution.

The greatest need now is for funds to aid tens of thousands of refugees in resettlement and rehabilitation, Rev. Carter states.

The 35 major protestant and eastern orthodox denominations represented in Church World Service are taking the responsibility of resettlement in America of upwards of 7,500 of the 21,000 refugees being brought to the U.S. under President Eisenhower's emergency immigration authorization.

Quakers Seek 3rd Win Tonight In Tilt At E. Palestine

Bulldogs Have 2-1 Record

Reserve Contest Starts At 7 p. m.

By MARK MILLER

Salem's Quakers will seek their third straight cage victory when they take to the road tonight for East Palestine where they will battle the Bulldogs on their home floor.

Starting for East Palestine at center will be Al Huston, six-foot, four-inch, 175-pound senior; and Bob Gibson, six-foot, three-inch, 186-pound junior, and Sam Hirt, six-foot, two-inch, 187-pound junior, will start at the forward post. Tom Young, five-foot, nine-inch, 160-pound senior, and Gary Griffith, five-foot, eight-inch, 165-pound junior, get the nod at the guard slots.

STARTING AT CENTER for the Quakers will be John Sturgeon, six-foot, four-inch junior. All the other starters are seniors. Mark Fenton and Ted Jackson will go at the forward positions, and John Stephenson and Bill Schuster will begin the game at the guard positions.

East Palestine has won two straight since losing its opening game of the season to Wellsville, 73-56. Bulldog victories were over Carrollton 52-44; and Springfield Twp. 71-41.

Salem is undefeated thus far in the season, winning over Struthers 49-37, and edging Columbiana Friday night in a real thriller 42-38.

IN ITS THREE games played thus far, Palestine has scored a total of 179 points for an average of 59.6 per game offensively. On the defense the Bulldogs have allowed their opponents to score 158 points for a 52.6 average per game.

In comparison the Red and Black have tallied 91 points in the two games they played, giving them an average of 45.5 per game on offense. But they have limited their opponents to just 75 points; for an average of 37.5 per game defensively.

The preliminary game with the reserves will begin at 7 p. m. and the varsity tilt is scheduled for 8.

Goshen Gophers Will Seek Fourth Cage Victory Tonight

When Goshen's Gophers journey to North Lima tonight they will beseech their fourth basketball victory in five starts, and their third straight win in a row.

Coach Tucker's squad has beaten Jackson-Milton 56-34, Greenford 67-33, and Berlin Center 62-55. The lone loss was suffered at the hands of Lowellville 59-45 in the second game of the season.

GIVES IOWA EDGE

LOS ANGELES (AP) — UCLA assistant coach and scout Johnny Johnson, who saw Iowa beat Oregon State 14-13 earlier in the season, says he cannot pick the winner between them in the Rose Bowl Game.

"Iowa has a little edge in the line," he says. "It's close but Iowa's a little bigger and a little rougher. Beyond the first teams, though, Iowa has the edge. They have more depth, but I don't mean Oregon State drops off badly. Oregon State's second unit is good, but there isn't much more available."

Coach Tucker is starting his second year at the helm of the Gophers. Tucker is a graduate of Mount Union College where he played basketball for the Purple Raiders.

Ralph Zurburg, began his coaching career early this year as assistant football coach, and is now assisting Tucker in basketball.

Zurburg is a graduate of Miami University of Ohio, where he starred in football and was named all-Ohio collegiate player of the year in 1952.

Hood In Petulant Mood, U. S. Team Hopes Soar

By WILL GRIMSLEY

ADELAIDE, Australia (AP) — America's Davis Cup tennis forces flew into Adelaide early today comforted by the news that Australia's temperamental Lew Hoad is in one of his petulant moods.

The U. S. cuppers realize their faint hopes of recapturing the trophy may be enhanced if the blond Sydney blockbuster undergoes a psychological break up such as the one that helped America in 1954.

At that time, Hoad, who is given to moodiness, became depressed shortly before the challenge round and issued his famous statement asking people to "get off my back" the U. S. went on to win the cup.

The Wimbledon Champion showed similar signs of edginess Monday in the final of the Victorian Championships in which he lost his third straight decision to teammate Ken Rosewall 4-6, 4-6, 6-1, 6-4, 6-3.

He slammed a ball into the backstop. He upbraided a linesman and had him removed. And after the match he strode angrily from the courts, not waiting for the official presentations.

Bill Talbert, U. S. cup captain, said he thought it possible Rosewall has found confidence against Hoad and become his teammate's master.

In 1904 Syracuse routed Manhattan, 144-0, in football.

Iowa Coach Lauds Team

Says Hawkeyes Ready For Bowl

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — The University of Iowa's line coach, Bob Flora, stepped up and said his piece about the Hawkeyes, who play Oregon state in the Rose Bowl New Year's Day, and he let it be known the team is tough.

Flora told the Football Writers Assn., Monday while head coach Forrest Evashevski was drilling the squad in East Los Angeles Junior College Stadium.

"Our team improved from week to week. We have 11 solid players and great morale. This is probably the soundest defensive team we've had at Iowa. It isn't a flashy team but it is rugged and durable."

"We'll be at full strength for the game. I don't know what condition the boys are in, but I know we're going to have to work hard for a week because of the change in climate and because we were set back by snow and cold weather. We haven't been able to run outdoors in several weeks."

As to the type of offense, Flora called it "more of a grinding attack than a flashy, quick scoring one."

"Our defense has been able frequently to make an opportunity," said the coach, "and the offense usually capitalized on it. We're not a passing team, but most of our touchdowns have come on passes, medium and long."

Coach Tommy Prothro of Oregon State was not present since the team hadn't arrived, but through John Eggers of OCS, who had talked long distance with him, this bit of information was related to the writers from the Beaver boss: "I don't think we could beat Iowa even if we repeated the best game we played this season."

Has 11-Point Lead In Hockey Scoring

6 A. M. USE

MONTREAL (AP) — Jean Beliveau of the Montreal Canadiens, padding his lead at a record-breaking rate, has moved out to an 11-point lead in the National Hockey League point scoring race.

The young center, upping his season total to 45 by collecting nine points in three games last week, has been averaging 1½ points a game (a player gets one point for a goal, and one for an assist). At that pace he would better the present record of 95 for the season set by Detroit's Gordie Howe in 1952-53, and also top his own record of 88 by a center, set last season.

Howe and Ted Lindsay, also of the Red Wings, are tied for second in point scoring, each with 34. Bert Olmstead of Montreal is fourth with 29 and Detroit's Norm Ullman fifth with 28 as the Canadiens and Red Wings continue to dominate the leading scorers' list — filling nine of the first 10 places.

Jayhawks Rated Best College Team

By JACK HAND

The touring Kansas Jayhawks with Wily Chamberlain, the seven-foot sophomore showing the way, remain atop the basketball poll as the No. 1 college team.

Sports writers and sportscasters voting in the weekly Associated Press poll gave Kansas an overwhelming margin with 68 first-place votes among the 93 cast. Only games through Saturday, Dec. 15, were considered.

San Francisco, which saw its record 60-game winning streak snapped Monday night by Illinois 62-33, clung to second place.

North Carolina picked up 12 firsts, more than anybody except Kansas, to move into third place. Southern Methodist edged up a step to fourth with two firsts, followed by Illinois, Louisville, Kentucky, West Virginia, St. Louis and Kansas State. Kentucky's defeat by St. Louis cost them a few points in the standings.

The point totals, figured on the basis of 10 for the first, 9 for the second, etc., gave Kansas a bulging total of 864 to San Francisco's 582.

Greaves Stopped By Italo Scorticini

NEW YORK (AP) — Italo Scorticini heads towards a bout with Joey Giardello and Wilf Greaves goes home to Edmonton, Alberta after Monday night's unanimous 10-round decision at St. Nicholas Arena.

The International Boxing Club may match Scorticini, the 25-year-old Italian, with Giardello on its TV schedule.

Jake Mintz, Greaves manager, who never is at a loss for words, was yelling his loudest in the dressing room.

"They bumped heads," said Jake, explaining both the first round knockdown and cut left eye suffered by his newest "tiger."

"He didn't know where he was for four rounds," said Mintz. "You didn't see the real Greaves fight."

Scorticini had a different version of the knockdown.

"It was my right hand," he said holding the hand on high. "Next you know he'll be saying somebody else hit him."

Greaves weighed 185, Scorticini 160½.

NL Cage Scoring Race 3-Way Affair

NEW YORK (AP) — The National Basketball Assn. scoring race, with a third of the season completed, has narrowed down to a three-way affair among Paul Arizin and Neil Johnston of the Philadelphia Warriors and St. Louis' Bob Pettit — each a former champion.

Weekly statistics released by the league today show Arizin in the lead by 10 points over Johnston with Pettit only 23 behind. Arizin has 600 and Johnston 590 points, each in 24 games, while Pettit has collected 577 in 23 starts.

By playing in one less game, Pettit has the top per game average — 25.1 to 25.0 for Arizin and 24.6 for Johnston.

Scoring continues at a record pace in the pro games. Last week, the average per team in 13 games played was 104 points. Boston, New York, and Philadelphia all are averaging better than 100 a game for the season, led by Boston with 105.4.

To Form Two More City Cage Leagues

Class C and D basketball Leagues organizational meeting will be held Saturday at 1:30 p. m. in the Memorial Building.

DUCK KILL 19 MILLION

WASHINGTON (AP) — Hunters killed nearly 19 million mourning doves in 29 states which had an open season on the birds in 1955, the Fish and Wildlife Service reported today.

More mourning doves are killed in this country yearly than any other game bird. By comparison, the duck kill in 1955 was 12¼ million.

CARS ARE MY LINE

by Al Parker

IT'S TRADING TIME!
I doubt, I honestly and sincerely doubt, if it's true that a local gal we'll call "Mrs. Helen Smith" drove into a service station one day and told the mechanic: "I think you'd better look at the depreciation; my husband says it's the most important thing about a car." I sincerely doubt it, even if another person who shall remain nameless (except that he is her husband) swears that it's true!

It is true, however, that depreciation is an invisible rust that is eating away at the value of your car every day. It's part of the cost of running a car, and it's there for the simple reason that an older car is worth less than a newer car.

You can't wipe off depreciation, or hide it with paint — but there is a way to keep its cost down to a bare minimum. The secret is to take advantage of the fact that cars are typed according to their style wear. That style wear as you know, changes in the autumn when the new models come in.

You don't have to be an auto expert, or a mathematician, to see that as the style year clicks over in the fall, your three-year-old car suddenly becomes a four-year-old car. And it's therefore worth that much less. This doesn't happen overnight, however, the turnover to the new style year takes a little time while the new cars are getting themselves established in the market.

The lesson is this: Right now, this very week, is the best time in the whole year to trade in your old car. If it's three years old it's still three years old, not four. Trade now and get the most for your car that is possible. For the used car buyer who wants quality at a low price, we have a beautiful 1954 Cadillac Coupe De Ville. A locally owned hard-top equipped with hydramatic, power steering, six-way seat, radio, white wall tires and many other exclusive Cadillac accessories. Carli Lumber Remains Undeclared; Two Salem Tool Teams Win Contests

Carli Lumber kept their undefeated streak going last night in Class A basketball action when they defeated a determined Jerry's Recreation squad, 70-54. The contest was one of three played Monday evening.

In the two other games, Salem Tool won over Youngstown's Kitchens 49-42 in a Class A encounter, and in the Class B game of the evening, the other Salem Tool team edged Suburban Market in the final period, 53-51.

Once again it was the same story for Carli's in the scoring column as the combined efforts of Bob Payer and Ed Jordan were too much for Jerry's to cope with. Payer found the range for 11 fielders and 8 fouls for 30 points, while Jordan had 9 field goals for 18 markers.

TONY KNOTT, FORMER Youngstown College ace, has his jump shot working for 26 points, but it wasn't enough to offset Payer's and Jordan's performances.

The winners led at halftime 29-25, and then stretched the score to 49-36 with but eight minutes left in the contest.

In the initial Class A game Monday night Salem Tool used a balanced scoring effort and 23 free throws to win over Youngstown Kitchens. The winners led at half mark, 42-22.

Len Batcha had 10 points for the victors, while teammates Roger Borine and Capel had 9 each.

Galen Beck had 9 for the losers. Kitchens' outscored Tool from the field 14-13, but the victors netted 23 fouls.

SUBURBAN MARKET lost out in the last quarter to a spirited Salem Tool five in the Class B contest.

At one time in the third period the losers led 40-30 but Tool came fighting back to close the margin to 42-39 going into the final period. In the last period, with the score knotted 51-51, Bill Crookston of Tool dumped in a pair of charity tosses to give his team their second win of the season.

Both teams had 21 field goals, but Tool's margin of victory was 2 free throws.

Crookston had 15 to pace the winners. For Suburban Market, Williams took game scoring honors with 17 markers.

ONE WAY TO STOP THEM

BERKELEY, Calif. — Pete Newell says he knows a sure way to stop Wilt Chamberlain and Kansas, but unfortunately, the California basketball coach can't use it in tonight's game.

The stopper.

Put the baskets over the gym rafters.

That's where Kansas coach Dick Harp found them Monday when he brought the 7-foot Chamberlain and pals for a workout.

"It was an idea," Newell said. "But I had to assure Harp they'd be in their regular position for the game."

Bob Prall, 20-year-old Salem amateur, won the Oregon Golf Assn. medal play title for the second straight year with a 217 for 54 holes.

Burdette Named Earned Run Leader In National League

NEW YORK (AP)—Lew Burdette, 30-year-old Milwaukee right-hander, has been named official earned run leader among National League pitchers with a 2.71 average.

Burdette, who won 17 games by late August and finished with a 19-10 won-lost record after tiring in the stretch drive, also topped the NL with six shutouts, two of them in succession in early July.

Burdette's closest competitor in the earned run department was his own teammate, Warren Spahn who finished with 2.79 while compiling a 20-11 record, his seventh season as a 20-game winner. It was Spahn who carried the heavy load for the Braves in the final weeks as they just missed the pennant.

With Burdette and Spahn running 1-2, the Milwaukee staff led the league with a low earned run average of 3.11 as compared to runnerup Brooklyn's 3.57. The least effective staff was Philadelphia's with a 4.20 average.

The top five pitchers in earned run average were: Burdette, 2.71; Spahn 2.79; Johnny Antonelli of New York 2.86; Sal Maglie of Brooklyn 2.87 and Don Newcombe of Brooklyn 3.06.

Newcombe, the Most Valuable Player in the league, was tops for the second straight year in won-lost percentage with a 27-7 mark for .794. He completed 12 of 38 starts.

Vice President Nixon Leaves For Vienna

WASHINGTON (AP)—Vice President Nixon leaves for Vienna today to view on the spot the plight of Hungarian refugees fleeing from communism into Austria.

Accompanied by Deputy Atty. Gen. William Rogers and eight other government aides, Nixon was to leave by special air force plane this afternoon.

During his three-day stay, Nixon will talk with Austrian government officials who have appealed for more U.S. aid to handle the flood of more than 135,000 refugees who have crossed into Austria during the past month rather than stay in their Communist-controlled homeland.

Nixon, who undertook the trip on instructions from President Eisenhower, is scheduled to return Sunday.

Cleveland Man Slain Leaving Apartment

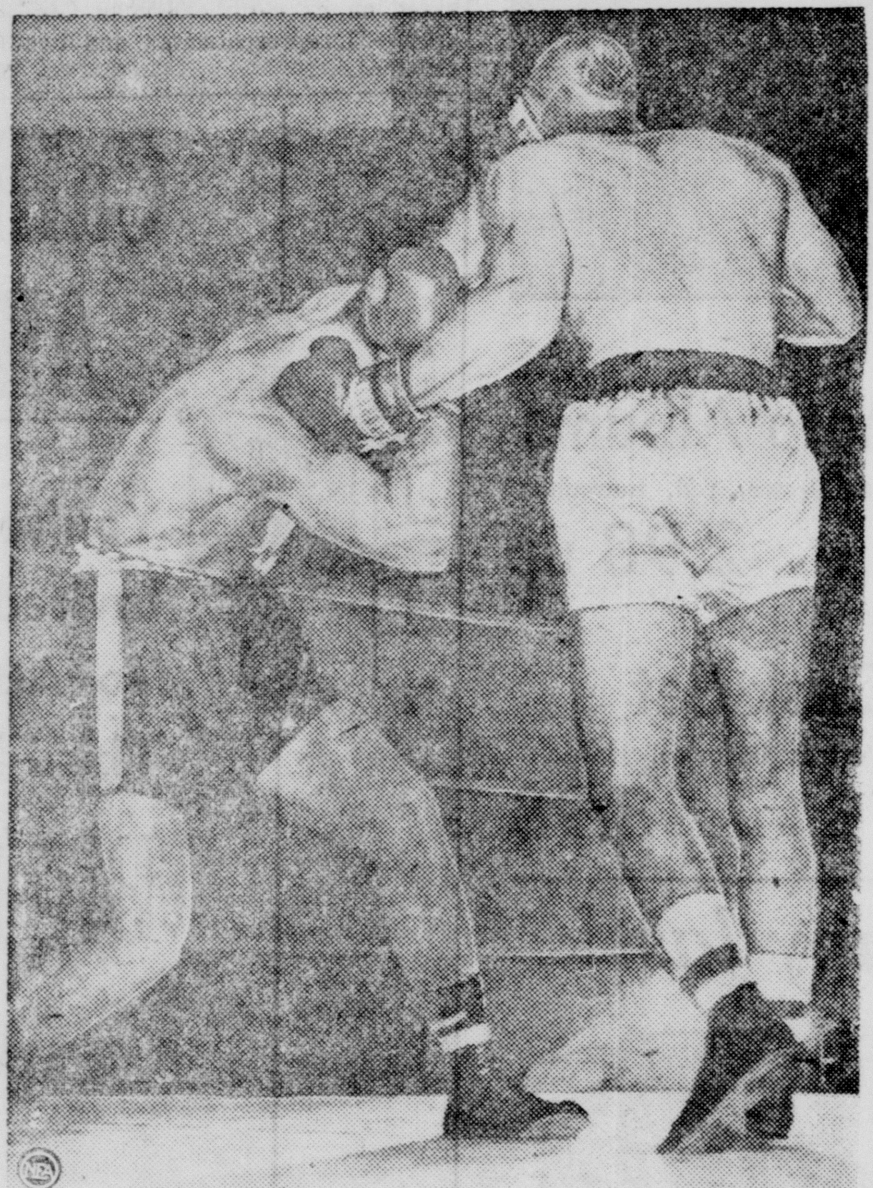

CLEVELAND (AP)—A 63-year-old man was shot and killed Monday night as he was leaving his apartment at 2471 E. 22nd St.

He was identified by police as Willie Parker. Found on steps leading to his apartment, he was pronounced dead at Charity Hospital. He had been shot in the back and neck.

Police said Miss Martha Carter, 46, who also occupies an apartment at the same address, admitted the shooting and said it followed an argument over Parker's drinking.

MAN KNIFE TO DEATH

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A 45-year-old Columbus man was knifed to death Monday, police said, after he attacked his slayer with a broom handle. P and over to the Franklin County grand jury was Joseph Edward Baker, 51, charged with the first degree manslaughter of Shannon Barnes, 45. Police said Baker told them he thought Barnes was attacking him with a gun. The fight, police said, apparently was touched off by a long-standing feud.

Detroit Lions Seek To Bar Meadows From Pro Football

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Lions want Ed Meadows of the Chicago Bears barred for life from professional football. Meadows says he's innocent. Commissioner Bert Bell of the National Football League says the player is being crucified.

The charges and denials stem from Sunday's NFL Western title game when the Bears whipped the Lions 38-21 in Chicago.

Quarterback Bobby Layne, key to the Lions' offense, was smeared and injured on a play in the second quarter. He was out for the rest of the game. The Lions reported he suffered a brain concussion.

Edwin J. Anderson, president of the Lions, dispatched a three-page letter to Bell Monday night accusing Meadows, a defensive end, of deliberately slugging Layne. He asked Bell to ban Meadows for life from the NFL and that the Bears and their coaches be fined.

Anderson claimed the injury was a "premeditated assault."

Bell said: "The Lions ought to look at motion pictures of the game and get any other evidence they think they have before accusing that boy of deliberately injuring another player."

"This is still America and a man isn't innocent until he is proved guilty," The Lions have no right to crucify this kid, no right to talk of banning him from the game, unless they have real proof that he was guilty of an illegal act. If the Lions have such proof, I'll be more than happy to look at it and consider it."

Meadows, a 25 pounder who played his college ball at Duke, said in Chicago he might sue the Lions for defamation of character. He said the tackle that led to the injury was accidental and that he didn't know Layne had handed the ball away.

"He'll have to think of something better than that," Layne commented. "If he was fooled, he was the only one in the whole stadium that was."

Layne, who returned to Detroit with the team Sunday night, was pronounced in good shape by Detroit doctors.

INDICTED ON TAX COUNTS

CINCINNATI (AP)—A federal grand jury Monday indicted two officers of Creutz Platers, Inc., on charges of evading personal and corporation income taxes. Otto Creutz, president and treasurer, is charged with failing to report $29,000 of income from 1949-1954 on which the tax is about $10,500. Miss Anna C. Brinkmann, vice president, is charged with failing to report $9,000 in income in 1952-1953, on which the tax payment is about $3,000. The corporation is charged with filing returns $26,000 lower than actual income from 1952-1954, on which back taxes are about $20,000.

Railroads Authorized To Increase Rates

WASHINGTON (AP)—Railroads serving much of the nation were authorized Monday to raise their freight rates by an estimated $402,600,000 a year.

Upon five days' notice to the public, Eastern railroads may boost their freight rates by 7 per cent and Western lines by 5 per cent. A request by Southern lines for a 7 per cent increase is scheduled for a hearing Jan. 7.

The Interstate Commerce Commission, which approved the hikes, trimmed down the increase sought by the Western railroads, which had sought a 7 per cent boost.

The railroads sought increases to help meet the cost of higher wage rates which became effective Nov. 1.

The Eastern territory lies east of the Mississippi River and north of the Ohio and Potomac rivers. The 7 per cent increase granted in the East was applied also to West Virginia and much of Virginia. A 5 per cent boost was authorized on freight moving between Eastern, Western and Southern territories.

On a number of commodities, the ICC specified fixed permissible increases which amount to less than the 5 per cent boosts authorized generally.

The 1956 World Series marked the first time that the winning team's pitchers turned in five straight complete games.

Rogers Woman Wins $18,000 Lawsuit

LISBON—A verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $18,000 was awarded in Common Pleas Court Monday morning.

The plaintiff, Eva Morris of Rogers Rd., was awarded this sum by Judge Joel H. Sharp, from the defendant, Atty. Charles McCorkhill of Salem, administrator of the estate of Hannah E. McGill.

Mrs. Morris claimed that amount for payment on promissory notes which she had signed as security for the deceased.

CHARGED WITH SLAYING

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—A mother of six children was bound to the grand jury Monday on a second degree murder charge in the slaying of her husband, Mrs. Marie Reddies Day, 24, is charged with the rifle slaying of her husband, Edward, 31, last Friday. She said he had threatened to kill her.

FILES CONDEMNATION SUIT

CLEVELAND (AP)—The federal government Monday filed a condemnation suit to take title of 74 acres adjacent to the air force base at Youngstown. The Plain Dealer said the government apparently wants the land to expand the base's northwest runway from 7,500 to 9,000 feet to handle faster jets.

Tommy (Red) Williams of Rochester's American Hockey League team has averaged only 19 minutes a season in the penalty box for eight years in the league.

You may create charming outdoor lighting arrangements, without having your house resemble a pizza pie store front.

Jolly Santas, reindeer, angels, snowmen, carolers and Christmas stars may all light up your house in true Christmas spirit. You can get good sized figures of this type made out of durable plastic for outdoor use and wired to spread a glow of light.

Doors and windows may be beautifully decorated with pine and light combinations. Pine rope may be obtained at florists, cut any length, and interspersed with lights to make attractive arrangements. Use it as a frame or in swag effects across the top of the door.

If the door has a peaked portico, set up diagonal rows of lights to cast a multi-colored ray from the top of the doorway to the edges of the portico.

A spotlight may be screwed into a porch ceiling socket to floodlight the floor of a porch and a spray of silvered green boughs, colorful ribbons, large Christmas ornaments and sprigs of pine at the door.

Candy canes, colorful stockings and Santa Claus may be used right on the door in candy box arrangements. Tinfoil bells may hang in the door spotlight too.

Light picture windows in the same fashion as doors, draping them with a curtain of greens or making a frame of the pine rope. A tree set up indoors may help the window capture the Yuletide spotlight. If there is no tree indoors at the window, electric candeliers or miniature Santas may be placed on the indoor sill to fill in the gap.

Two outdoor evergreens of different heights growing on the same side of the house may be decorated this way: Emphasize them with two outdoor plastic figures of unequal size. One about 30 inches will be tall enough next to a full-grown tree. A smaller 19-inch snowman or Santa may be used next to smaller trees or bushes. Trim both trees with different colored lights in the same pattern.

The sing will be held around a decorated Christmas tree, donated by Commissioner W. A. Huns-ton in the first floor hall.

IT'S ABOUT TIME!

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—It's taken nearly six weeks, but Ohio has finally acknowledged President Eisenhower and Vice President Nixon were winners in the Nov. 6 election.

They were given the state's 25 electoral college votes Monday.

Ballots were signed by 22 men and three women, all of them civic leaders or party officials, who were chosen by secret ballot last month. Ohio's 25 votes are based on its membership in Congress—23 representatives and two senators.

3 Drunken Drivers Fined At Homeworth

Three motorists, each charged with driving cars while under the influence of alcohol, were fined $100 and costs and sentenced to three days in jail by Justice of the Peace R. E. Idén at Homeworth yesterday.

Arrested by Hanover Township Constable Roy Painter, the defendants were Harry Barnes, 67, and Donald L. Barnes, 21, both of RD, Kensington, and George Cramer, 30, of Canton. They were arrested early Sunday morning near Kensington, the constable reported.

Special Officer Wayne Zurcher of Minerva assisted.

Another driver, John W. Tokas of RD 1, Malvern, was cited on a charge of driving a car with improper license plates.

WILL BOOST TUITION

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Director of the city-owned University of Akron Monday decided to increase the tuition next September.

Akron residents will be charged $140, up $20, and non-residents will pay $280, up $40 a semester.

University President Norman P. Auburn said the increase will help cover salary boosts of up to 6 per cent for 250 faculty members and school employees.

WITH OR WITHOUT CHAINS, GO SLOW—Part of the hazards presented by snow and ice can be overcome with the use of snow tires or chains on your car. Chart, above, shows comparative stopping ability at 20 miles per hour of regular tires, snow tires and standard and reinforced chains. Distances do not allow for driver's reaction time, which averages three-fourths of a second, and adds another 22 feet to figures shown. Even with tire chains, slower than normal speeds are a must on snow and ice.

Damascus Garden Club Has Luncheon

DAMASCUS — The year ended for the Damascus Garden Club of Mrs. Thomas Powell Thursday. The home was beautifully decorated in a musical theme of gold and green, including miniature gold band instruments as place favors.

Assisting Mrs. Powell as co-hostesses were Mrs. Bernard Ostrosky, Mrs. Glenn Bircher and Mrs. Wilson Morlan.

Mrs. C. T. Shreve, president, opened the meeting by reading a portion of Scripture, and a Christmas poem. Roll call was answered by each member giving their preference in Christmas hymns, with the final reading of the secretary and treasurer reports being given by Mrs. Alton Bye and Mrs. Charles Roberts.

Poinsettia plants will be given to the Valley Road Rest Home patients.

Installation of next year's officers was an impressive ceremony conducted by Mrs. Shreve, president, calling forth each member's office and relating their responsibilities to the club.

Those taking office will be President, Mrs. Bernard Ostrosky; vice president, Mrs. Fred Israel; second vice president, Mrs. Ray Danklef; secretary, Mrs. Myron West; treasurer, Mrs. Glenn Shreve.

Mrs. Ostrosky named her committee for next year, program committee will consist of Mrs. Fred Israel, Mrs. Ray Danklef, Mrs. C. T. Shreve and Mrs. Bernard Ostrosky. Ways and means committee, Mrs. Donald Phillips, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Glenn Shreve, Mrs. Alton Bye and Mrs. Glenn Bircher.

Exhibits and shows committee,

"CAT BURGLAR" — Dr. John F. Riordan, 35, father of one child and highly respected in his profession, was arrested in Belmont, Calif., as the "cat burglar" who has been operating in the suburban community. The $1,300-per-month chief anesthetist at Community Hospital in San Mateo reportedly told police he had an "obsessive compulsion neurosis," and he sometimes "became unglued" because of overwork.

Mrs. Thomas Powell, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Harold Brown, Mrs. Frank Delzell, Mrs. L. L. Root, Mrs. Ray Danklef, and Mrs. Ellis Steer. Horticulture, Mrs. Charles Roberts. Conservation - Mrs. Frank Delzell.

Publicity and historian, Mrs. Wilson Morlan. Forum delegates and alternates, Mrs. Harold Brown, Mrs. Glenn Shreve and Mrs. Ellis Steer. Telephone and transportation, Mrs. Clyde Barclay and Mrs. C. T. Shreve. Garden therapy, Mrs. Charles Roberts and Mrs. Clyde Barclay.

Civic interests, Mrs. L. L. Root, Mrs. N. C. Wilkinson, Mrs. Myron West and Mrs. Wilson Morlan. Book shelf, Mrs. Charles Roberts. A gift was then presented Mrs. C. T. Shreve by the club members for the fine work as president for the past year, as well as a gift to the hostess, Mrs. Powell for use in her new home.

A gift exchange was held followed by each member displaying her Christmas arrangement for comment.

Lindley Vickers of Youngstown will be guest speaker when Mrs. Donald Phillips will be hostess at the meeting in January.

The Community Club meeting was held in the cabin at the Community Center Thursday evening with Mrs. Fred Jose, president, presiding.

The amendments to the constitution, which were passed, were increasing the number of trustees to ten, with five ladies and five men serving; the tenure of service being advanced to two years; and there will be a secretary and a treasurer instead of the secretary assuming both offices.

Mrs. Joseph Bush is the secretary and Ray Danklef is treasurer. The next meeting is scheduled for Jan. 3 with the place to be announced when trustees will be announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morlan, Mrs. Wilson Morlan and Mr. and Mrs. Foster Hall and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Warrington attend the committee meeting of the Wilbur Friends at the Friends Boarding School in Barnesville, Tuesday.

Lewis Borton and son Dale of Yellow Springs were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chepke Wednesday and Thursday. They were here on a deer hunting trip.

Jets Mark Anniversary Of First Plane Flight

KILL DEVIL HILLS, N. C. (AP) — The evolution of the airplane comes into sharp focus on these outer banks today as jet planes capable of exceeding the speed of sound fly over the same stretch of Sandy Beach where the Wright brothers recorded their first powered flight.

The brief ceremonies at the Wright Memorial Monument here feature the flyover by about 40 modern jets at 10:37 a.m. — 53 years to the minute that the Wrights made their first takeoff.

On that flight, Orville watched his brother Wilbur travel 120 feet in 12 seconds.

Iraq To Stand With West Against Reds

BAGHDAD, Iraq (AP) — Premier Nuri Said vowed Sunday night that Iraq will stand firmly with the West against communism despite a chorus of criticism from Moscow, Cairo and Damascus.

Cries from other Arab nations against the controversial Baghdad Pact alliance, he declared, were really aimed "simply and solely to destroy Iraq" and put it at the disposal of others.

He said Iraq will remain a member of the U. S.-backed alliance, which joins Iraq with Turkey, Pakistan, Iran and Britain in defense against Communist aggression.

The 68-year-old strongman told his people over Baghdad radio that opponents have heaped "insults, fabrications and inventions" on Iraq "to an extent that it is alleged to be on the verge of collapse."

"Certain members of these parties have brought those fabrications true by agitation and stirring up disturbances, by creating panic among the public by throwing bombs and explosives in public places and the buildings of foreign embassies, and trying to organize networks for assassinations."

The telephone company, which once closed the manually operating Adena exchange because of violence in the extended strike by the Communications Workers of America, kept the exchange open today.

The sheriff's office said only one man was on duty when the blast knocked a piece of plywood loose from the door. He was identified as M. Merillat. Supervisory personnel have been keeping most of the company's exchanges open in southern and eastern Ohio on an emergency basis.

The union, which struck last July 15, has consistently denied responsibility for strike-connected violence.

A sheriff's deputy investigating the bombing said he found an unexploded 2-inch firecracker at a window near the door to the building.

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

Victor Riesel

America's Communists are simply annoyed with those stubborn Hungarian workers who insist on creating traffic jams by piling up their bodies in Budapest streets. It gets so the Soviet tanks can't make more than a traffic light or two between stops. It's all very embarrassing and the American Embassy is busy trying to wash Hungarian blood from its Communist program and politics. But the stuff just won't wash out and this means the Communists will have to camouflage themselves once again.

First the Communist party will drop its present name. It will even erase the words "Marxism-Leninism" from the preamble to the party constitution.

When some naive Communists heard this and asked how you can run a Communist movement and be a Marxist without this phrase, they were told not to be idiots.

Karl Marx himself, they were advised, once was faced by some young followers who were asked to camouflage their activity. And Marx cried out that when it's expedient, "I am not a Marxist."

The Communist party will actually stop acting as a regular political party and become a political action association under some new 20th century American phrase which will sound as patriotic as Yankee Doodle and be as hollow as a wind tunnel. This change will be made at the 16th Communist party national convention in New York, Feb. 11 through 14.

This will by no means take them out of politics. It will get them deeper into politics—Republican and Democratic. Tipoff came, for example, when the Communists New York legislative representative, Si Gerson, registered as a Democrat in the last election.

The irritated Democrats are now awaiting official publication of the registration lists so they can go into the courts to throw him off the rolls.

The new Communist political association will simply throw its weight around, offering money and manpower to candidates of other parties.

BEFORE YOU shout out that no one will take this support, let me report that these are bright boys, the comrades. They know they'll first try to capture or infiltrate civic, political, cultural and labor organizations.

Then with these as fronts, the Communies will offer support so that no candidate need be embarrassed by taking long green from the Reds. This happened in many congressional campaigns last election.

Since they have only 20.0 active, disciplined members, the party has had to retire some of its previous lines, as they say in the garment industry. The party has shut down its schools, its labor publications and its singing societies.

It is out looking for new chowderheads who will be naive enough to join its new marching societies.

THERE IS MUCH talk, too, inside the highest Communist circles, about asking Earl Browder to resume party leadership — since it was his regime which coined the phrase "Communism is 20th century Americanism."

Mr. Browder tells people he has heard of such talk but there's been no action and he has not yet been approached.

It is doubtful he would agree to lead even a camouflaged Communist movement — for he has lost so many old friends to the prison cells and bullets of the Russian secret police these past few years.

For the moment, however, it is not important who leads the party. It will, as in the past, be directed by a Soviet resident agent. Non-Communist political circles will have to fend for themselves for the moment.

Some of us have to give the "one-if-by-land" signal to the labor people right now. For one of the new strategies will be to infiltrate the AFL-CIO even deeper than it has been recently. So you will soon see some of the more infamous Communist leaders retire.

BUT THEIR FORCES will be just as militantly controlled by the Communists as they always have been. Now if all the Sovietizing unions wheedle their way back into the AFL-CIO, they will have quite a bloc. I'd put their strength at over 400,000 members and their treasuries in the hundreds of millions of dollars.

They are in the most strategic industries including transportation and communications. They have a jiu-jitsu hold on vital fuels and could throw us off balance for weeks if they acted concertedly at a moment when the enemy attacked.

So don't take this new Communist line lightly. It could strangle the country.

Bequests $57,500 To Mt. Union College

Mount Union College announced today a gift to its endowment program of $57,500. The fund is contained in a bequest by the late Mrs. Royce D. Fry of Cleveland whose husband preceded her in death several years ago.

Dr. Fry was graduated from Mount Union in 1880 and distinguished himself as a physician and surgeon major and brigade surgeon in the Spanish-American War. He practiced in Cleveland from 1930 until his death. His widow was the former Elizabeth Douglas.

4-H Club News

Stitch and Chatter 4-H Club

New officers were elected at a meeting of the Stitch and Chatter 4-H Club Thursday in the home of Cathy and Carol Karnofel of the Franklin Road.

The newly elected officers are: President, Marcella Volpe; vice president, Carol Hawkins; secretary, Patty Duke; assistant secretary, Betty Jo Hawkins; treasurer, Denise Duke; health and safety committee, Cathy and Carol Karnofel; recreation, Ethel Duke, Ruth Doyle, Carol Spencer.

Marcella Volpe was appointed chairman of the 1957 year book committee. Assisting her will be Carol Hawkins, Denise Duke, Betty Jo Hawkins and Carol Lehwald.

For its winter project, the club chose "When 4-H members entertain."

A thank you note was received from the Home for Aged Women for a party given the residents recently. Each girl in the club chose one of the women for her "pal" for a year.

The next meeting will be sometime during the holidays at the home of Janice and Kathy Groves of the Washingtonville Road.

In The Service

Kenneth L. Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Rogers of Winona, was promoted Dec. 1 to staff sergeant at Castle Air Force Base, Calif.

A graduate of Salem High School, Class of 1951, Rogers enlisted in the Air Force April 8, 1953 and has since re-enlisted extending his service to Nov. 3, 1959.

He received basic training at Sampson Air Force Base, N.Y., was graduated from jet mechanics school at Chanute Air Force Base in December, 1953, and from instructor's school at the same base in April of 1954. He served as instructor at the school for a year and then was transferred to the jet engine shop at Castle Air Base.

In June, 1955, he was returned to Chanute for five weeks specialized training in preparation for assembling and serving the new B-52 long range bombers. He also received four weeks special training for these planes at Edwards Air Force Base, Calif.

$100,000 For Housing

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—The Timken Foundation has offered the city of Canton $100,000 for use in a housing improvement program. Announcement of the offer was made today by W. R. Timken, treasurer of the foundation, which is allied with the Timken Roller Bearing Co., as City Council prepared to take up a 16-page proposed ordinance which would establish a minimum housing code and set up a city housing commission and an office of housing improvement.
